- 5.6 The Committee must be of a sufficient size and possess the requisite skill and independence to effectively discharge its obligations.
- 5.7 Each member is expected to possess adequate remuneration, regulatory and industry knowledge to carry out his or her responsibilities as a member of the Committee. The term of service of Committee members will be reviewed by the Chair at least annually, with a view to rotating members periodically, but without losing the continuity of experience and knowledge gained by the members of the Committee.

6 Committee meetings

6.1 Meetings

- (a) Meetings and proceedings of the Committee are governed by the provisions in the Company's constitution regulating meetings and proceedings of the Board and committees of the Board in so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with this Charter.
- (b) The Board will disclose the number of times the Committee met throughout that financial year and the individual attendance of each Committee member at those meetings.

6.2 Frequency and attendance at meetings

- (a) The Committee will meet at least twice per year and more frequently as required to perform its functions.
- (b) The Chair must call a meeting if requested to do so by any member of the Committee, the external auditor or the Chair of the Board.
- (c) The Chair of the Committee is appointed by the Board. If, for a particular Committee meeting, the Committee Chair is not present within 10 minutes of the nominated starting time of the meeting, the Committee may elect a Chair for the meeting.
- (d) Committee meetings may be held by technological means which allow members to participate without being physically present in the same place.
- (e) As necessary or desirable, the Committee may invite management, auditors, external advisors, or any other persons to attend and contribute to meetings.
- (f) At the end of each reporting period, the Committee must disclose to the Board the number of times that it met during the period and the individual attendances of its members at those meetings.

6.3 Conflicts

- (a) No Committee member will participate in the review of their own performance or determination of their own performance.
- (b) No Committee member will be present for discussions at a Committee meeting on, or vote on a matter regarding, his or her election, re-election, or removal.
- (c) A separate Chair should be appointed if and when the Committee is dealing with the appointment of a successor to the Chair.

6.4 Quorum

A quorum shall be any two (2) Committee members.

6.5 Minutes

- (a) The Secretary must keep minutes of all Committee meetings.
- (b) The minutes of each Committee meeting must be approved by the Chair and distributed to all Committee members.
- (c) The minutes of each Committee meeting are to be tabled at the next Board meeting.

6.6 Agenda and documents

The Chair determines the meeting agenda after appropriate consultation. The Secretary will distribute the notice of meeting, the agenda of items to be discussed and related material to all Committee members and other attendees in advance of each proposed meeting of the Committee.

6.7 Delegation

The Committee may delegate any of its powers and responsibilities as the Committee thinks appropriate for the administration of director, senior executive and employee share, option or other plans, to senior management.

7 Reporting to the board

- 7.1 The Committee will liaise with the Board in relation to the Company's remuneration related reporting obligations under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and will ensure that all other applicable governance, accounting and legal requirements regarding disclosure of remuneration are complied with.
- 7.2 The Committee will:
 - (a) liaise with the Audit and Risk Committee and the Board in relation to the Company's remuneration related reporting in the financial statements and remuneration report required by the Corporations Act and in relation to matters that impact rewarding conduct that is contrary to the Company's values or risk appetite;
 - (b) approve an annual remuneration report containing information on the Company's remuneration policy, practices, attendance at and frequency of Committee meetings and make recommendations to the Board for the inclusion of the remuneration report in the Company's annual report;
 - (c) make recommendations to the Board regarding the process for evaluating performance of the Board, its committees and the directors individually; and
 - (d) bring to the Board's attention all matters of importance in relation to the Company's remuneration policies and provide sufficient information to facilitate informed decision making.
- 7.3 Following each Committee meeting the Chair will report to the Board on any matter that should be brought to the Board's attention and on any recommendation of the Committee that requires Board approval or action, and provide the Board with sufficient information upon which to make a decision in that regard.
- 7.4 At the end of each reporting period, the Committee must disclose to the Board the number of times that it met during the period and the individual attendances of its members at those meetings.

8 Board and committee performance

8.1 The Committee is required to:

- (a) develop and implement a process for periodically evaluating the skills, performance, and effectiveness of the CEO and other senior executives, the Board, its committees and its individual members; and
- (b) ensure that continuing professional development opportunities are available for directors and committee members to develop and maintain the appropriate skills and knowledge required to perform their roles effectively.

8.2 The Committee will review its performance from time to time and whenever there are major changes to the management structure of the Company.

8.3 Committee members must be available to meet with external bodies if requested to do so in accordance with relevant laws, regulations or industry standards.

9 Remuneration structure

9.1 Distinction between Non-Executive and Executive Remuneration

- (a) The Committee will ensure that a clear distinction is maintained between the structure of non-executive directors' remuneration on one hand and that of executive directors and other senior executives on the other.

9.2 Remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives

- (a) The Committee will make recommendations to the Board regarding the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives (Executive Remuneration).
- (b) Executive Remuneration packages should include an appropriate balance between fixed remuneration that is comparable with current market rates and performance based remuneration, linked to clearly specified performance targets that align with the Company's short and long term objectives and which are appropriate to the Company's circumstances and goals.

9.3 Remuneration of non-executive directors

- (a) The Committee will make recommendations to the Board regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors.
- (b) Non-executive directors should be remunerated in accordance with current market rates for comparable companies and at a level that enables the Company to attract and retain non-executive directors of the highest calibre, whilst incurring a cost which is acceptable to shareholders.
- (c) Non-executive directors should not receive performance-based remuneration. The Committee will need to ensure that any incentives (if recommended) for non-executive directors do not conflict with their obligation to bring an independent judgment to matters before the Board.

10 Incentive or equity based schemes

10.1 For any incentive schemes or equity based plans which are adopted, the Committee is responsible for:

- (a) (reviewing) reviewing their terms (including any eligibility criteria and performance hurdles);
- (b) (administration) overseeing their administration (including compliance with applicable laws that restrict participants from hedging the economic risk of their security holdings) and disclosing its policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme;
- (c) (shareholder approval) considering whether shareholder approval is required or desirable for the schemes or plans and for any changes to them;
- (d) (payments and awards) ensuring that payments and awards of equity are made in accordance with their terms and any shareholder approval; and
- (e) (compliance) ensuring compliance with applicable laws that restrict participants from hedging the economic risk of their security holdings.

11 Review and publication of charter

- 11.1 The Committee will review this Charter at least annually to ensure that it accords with best practise and remains consistent with the Committee's authority, objectives and responsibilities.
- 11.2 This Charter may be amended from time to time by resolution of the Board.
- 11.3 This Charter will be available on the Company's website and the key features will be published in the annual report or a link provided to this Charter or a summary on the website.
